PG course M.Com is introduced in the 2017-18 and M.Sc (Organic Chemistry) is introduced in 2021-22. Now the college is offering 5 UG programmes and 2 PG programmes.

The college was named after eminent social reformer, educationalist and modern age poet Sri Gurajada Appa Rao. He belongs to a village Sarvariddi Rayavaram, which is 10 kilometres away from Yellamanchili.

The college is most accessible and is catering to the educational needs of rural students in Visakhapatnam district of North Coastal Andhra Pradesh. The college is located in Yellamanchili. Yellamanchili is a Municipality and is well connected by road and rail to the port city of Visakhapatnam. The nearest airport is Visakhapatnam.

Yellamanchili has a rich historical background. During the British regime it was one of the few important taluq headquarters. It had a prominent place during Satavahana's and Gupta's regime. During Samudragupta's period this area is known as Devarashtra. Venugopalaswamy and Verabhadraswamy temples were constructed by Chalukyan minister in the village kokkirapilli in Yellamanchili mandal. The evidence of existence of Yellamanchili in Stone Age is preserved in the Department of Archaeology, Andhra University. Dimili, a nearby village to Yellamanchili is the birth place of modern famous poets Sri Sri and Arudra.

The college is affiliated to Andhra University, Visakhapatnam. It is co-educational and is offering five (05) undergraduate courses, namely B.A (History, Economics, Rural Industrialisation), B.Com (General), B.Sc (Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry), BSc (Mathematics, Physics, Computer Science) and BSc (Botany, Zoology, Computer Science) and two (02) PG Courses namely M.Com and M.Sc(Organic Chemistry). The total number of students pursuing the five undergraduate courses is 530 and in PG courses is 35. The total number of students pursuing in the academic year i.e., 2022-23 is 565.
