As part of National Nutrition Week celebrations, the Department of Zoology at S.G.A. Government Degree College (A), Yellamanchili, organized an awareness talk on the "Importance of Balanced Diet" on Day 1 of the program. Head of the Department, Dr. Sujatha, actively led the session, guiding students on essential dietary choices, proper meal planning, and key health practices. The interactive discussion aimed to foster healthy lifestyle habits and educate students on the strong connection between nutrition and academic success. Faculty members and students enthusiastically participated in the event to mark a strong, health-focused start to the week-long initiative.

Elocution Competition Highlights Day 2 of National Nutrition Week at SGA Govt. Degree College

Continuing the National Nutrition Week celebrations, the Department of Zoology at S.G.A. Government Degree College (A), Yellamanchili, conducted an Elocution Competition on Day 2 (September 2, 2026). Centered on the theme "Healthy Mind Begins with Healthy Plate," the event provided a platform for students to articulately present their views on the vital connection between balanced nutrition, mental health, and physical well-being. Under the guidance of Head of the Department Dr. Sujatha and department faculty members, students actively participated, showcasing impressive public speaking skills and a strong awareness of healthy lifestyle choices. The judges commended the participants for their insightful perspectives and encouraged them to continue promoting nutritional awareness among their peers and communities.

Warm Welcome Extended to Dr. Sashikala, Lecturer in Zoology, at SGA Government Degree College (A)

The Principal of SGA Government Degree College (A), Dr. P. Chandrasekhar, warmly welcomed Dr. Sashikala, Lecturer in Zoology, on her joining the college. Addressing the students and faculty in the classroom, the Principal introduced Dr. Sashikala and expressed confidence that her academic expertise would greatly enrich the Department of Zoology and benefit the students. He encouraged the students to actively engage in their learning and make full use of the guidance and knowledge provided by the new faculty member.

Interactive Quiz Competition Marks Day 3 of National Nutrition Week at SGA Govt. Degree College

As part of the ongoing National Nutrition Week celebrations, the Department of Zoology at S.G.A. Government Degree College (A), Yellamanchili, organized an energetic Quiz Competition on Day 3 (September 3, 2026). Designed to test and broaden students' understanding of nutritional science, dietary guidelines, and health awareness, the competition featured multiple student teams labeled A through F. Guided by Head of the Department Dr. Sujatha and department faculty, the interactive rounds encouraged healthy academic rivalry and team collaboration. The event successfully combined fun with learning, reinforcing key principles of balanced nutrition and daily wellness among all participants.
